

Flexible training – we're here to make it work for you.

AS THE INDUSTRY TRAINING ORGANISATION FOR THE SECURITY INDUSTRY, ETITO PROVIDES ADVICE, INFORMATION AND A VARIETY OF TOOLS TO ASSIST IN THE DECISION TO CHOOSE AND IMPLEMENT NATIONAL QUALIFICATIONS TRAINING IN SECURITY COMPANIES THROUGHOUT NEW ZEALAND. THIS MEANS THAT IF YOUR BUSINESS DECIDES TO UNDERTAKE NATIONAL QUALIFICATIONS TRAINING YOU CAN BE SURE THAT ETITO'S DEDICATED STAFF WILL ADVISE YOU OF ALL THE OPTIONS SO YOU CAN FIND THE BEST POSSIBLE TRAINING AND ASSESSMENT SOLUTIONS TO SUIT YOUR BUSINESS.

One of the key reasons why national qualifications training is favoured by so many New Zealand security companies is because of the flexibility it offers. Companies can choose to engage in workplace assessment, off-job assessment or a combination of both. ETITO staff will work closely with your business to ensure that the training system you choose is tailored to your needs.

Working in consultation with industry, ETITO is always looking to expand these options and, as of late last month, ETITO is pleased to advise that it has signed a national training provider agreement with Wintec for the provision of the National Certificate in Security [Level 2] in 2010. Essentially, this means that throughout the country Wintec may now deliver training and assessment for this qualification to those who have been allocated an ETITO training place. This complements the quality regional training provision that is already available.

"The establishment of a national training provider option for the provision of national qualifications in the security industry is a critical element in building expertise and training in the security industry," says Ross Clarke, ETITO Industry Training Manager. "ETITO is delighted that there will now be more choice when selecting the best possible training and assessment solutions for security firms and we're looking forward to working with Wintec into the future."

Whatever training and assessment option you choose, be it through an external provider or workplace assessment, you can rest assured that ETITO will continue to closely monitor your company's training progress and support you on your way to national qualifications success.
