ASIS International Australia / New Zealand ANZsec 2007 Security Conference

9-10 October 2007

Ellerslie Events Centre

Auckland

Celebrating the 20th anniversary of the New Zealand Chapter of ASIS International, the conference offers a two day programme including local and international security speakers.

ETITO is sponsoring the CEO Breakfast on the Wednesday morning of the conference, the theme of which is the future of the security industry, with guest speaker Robin Gunston.

With educational sessions, case studies, panel discussions, keynote speeches, and networking events the conference is an opportunity to connect with security industry leaders from across Australasia and discover how they are addressing the issues facing the industry.

Topics covered will include: collaborative approaches to security risk management, recognising fraud in your organisation, and the future economy. You'll also have an opportunity to see the latest security products on the market as well as network with professionals from a wide range of backgrounds and disciplines.
